- 5.3 The delivery is due at the destination on the date(s) stipulated in the order confirmation. If a fixed calendar delivery date has been agreed upon, late delivery puts Supplier automatically in default, unless the Supplier communicates his delivery difficulties in due time and the parties agree on a different solution.
- 5.4 The scope of delivery includes, and the Supplier shall not be deemed to have satisfied its delivery obligations unless and until it delivers to AEL, everything required for the proper installation, operation and functioning of the product, regardless of whether mentioned or described in the specifications set forth in or related to the order.

7 Delivery Dates and Late Delivery

- 7.1 The delivery is due at the destination on the date(s) stipulated in the purchase order / order acknowledgement. If a fixed calendar delivery date has been agreed upon, late delivery puts Supplier automatically in default, unless the Supplier communicates his delivery difficulties in due time and the parties agree on a different solution.
- 7.2 AEL is entitled to claim as compensation for damages resulting from delay for each whole or partial week by which the delivery date is exceeded a flat rate of one percent of the net sale price, up to a maximum amount of 5% of the delivery's net sales price. The requirement of prior notice, insofar as a delivery date is not determined by the calendar, remains unaffected by this provision. If the Supplier is late with only part of the delivery, the penalty for default shall be calculated on the price of the Supplier's total performance that is affected by the late partial delivery. The foregoing provisions of this paragraph 7.2 are in addition to and not exclusive of any other remedy that may be available to AEL in the event the Supplier fails to deliver an item in accordance with the terms of a delivery agreement. Nothing herein shall be deemed to limit any such other remedy that may be available to AEL, nor shall AEL's enforcement of any other rights it may have be deemed or construed to affect or waive any of its rights hereunder. The Supplier's payment of damages required by this paragraph 7.2 does not release the Supplier from its duty to fulfil the delivery according to the agreement.
- 7.3 The Supplier may plead omission of essential services to be performed by AEL only if he has requested these on time.
- 7.4 Partial or early deliveries are admissible only if they have been agreed upon.

The amount of any penalty for default according to paragraph 7.2 above shall be credited against any damages to which AEL may be entitled under this paragraph 7.5.
- 7.6 If it becomes evident already prior to the delivery date that the Supplier will not be able to meet the agreed delivery date, AEL may terminate the delivery agreement and waive delivery.
- 7.7 The delivery agreement may also be terminated if in the course of manufacture it becomes evident that the object to be delivered will not be suitable for the purpose intended.
